March 26, 27, & 28
Jester Park Equestrian Center,
Granger, Iowa

Kip will be offering two sessions:

Groundwork: 9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Horsemanship I: 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Which Session is for you?

Groundwork is for the horse of any age who has been saddled and ridden some. Horsemanship develops better communication between horse and rider. Feel free to ride in BOTH!

Each Nine-hour Session is $300

Kip has spent the majority of his life working with and riding horses. He has been a student of horsemanship for over 22 years, learning from Ray Hunt and Buck Brannaman. After attending several of Buck's clinics, Kip was offered an opportunity to work for Buck and spent the next five years studying with and assisting at Buck's clinics.

After having the opportunity to work for Buck, Kip felt that he needed to take the skills he had learned and begin applying them to client horses. His main focus is starting colts under saddle, but he also works with problem horses and conducts clinics in groundwork, horsemanship, cow working and ranch roping.
